Duill

Attractive traditional Mull self-catering with sea views
Sleeps 3

Duill is a charming Mull self-catering cottage, in a shared grassy garden, with sea views across open fields to the isle of Coll and beyond.

Its elevated position affords glorious views out to sea over to the Isles of Coll and Rum. It was used as a farm workers cottage before becoming self-catering accommodation.

Duill has been extensively renovated and insulated. We added the 'sitooterie' (unheated sunroom) as a way of upcycling old windows to create an 'outdoors space indoors' for guests to enjoy whatever the weather – it has created a great place to enjoy the views, the winter sunsets and any bird or wildlife activity on the lochan nearby. Watch for gannets diving into the sea whilst having your breakfast! There is no TV, but there are books and a selection of games for your fireside enjoyment.

The cottage is warm and cosy whatever time of year: it is heated by woodchip (from a central boiler system) and has thermostatically controlled radiators throughout, with a wood burning stove in the living room.

The fully equipped galley kitchen includes a fridge, small freezer, electric cooker and microwave. The kitchen window is a perfect vantage point for looking at the birdlife attracted to the restored pond (or lochan) just beyond the garden fence.
The top oven opens downwards with a horizontal bar handle of 74cm above the floor. The bottom oven opens sideways with a horizontal handle of 49cm above the floor.
The hob is 90cm above the floor.

Glasses and crockery can be moved from the wall units to floor units. Please request this before your arrival.

The bathroom leads off the kitchen area with a door width of 70cm. The toilet is 42cm high. The hand basin is 82cm high. From the far end of the sink to the taps is 28cm. The taps push open. There is a wall-mounted shower integrated into a bath. The bath is 60cm high.

The kitchen area leads into a small central hall with access to the bedrooms and sitting room. The width of the passageway from the kitchen to the central hall is 74cm. Door widths of the rooms are 68cm.

The double bedroom has a king size bed with views out to Caliach Point over the waters of Calgary Bay. Height of the bed from the top of the mattress to the floor is 56cm. Bedside tables are 60cm high with lamps, which switches on the lamp.

There is an additional bright but tiny single bedroom, ideal for a child – but with a full sized adult single bed. Height of the bed from the top of the mattress to the floor is 55cm. Bedside table is located at the foot of the bed, 75cm high. A bedside lamp is mounted in the wall.

The round dining table (diameter of 89cm) has 3 legs, which are 20cm in from the edge of the table. The height of the table is 70cm. The height from the floor to the underside of the table is 67cm. The table can sit 3 people. The 3 chairs have a removable cushion and have no arms. They can all be moved freely around the table.

From the living room a double glazed thermal door (76cm wide) leads through, with one step down (18cm), into the new 'sitooterie' (the unheated sunroom). This provides guests with somewhere to sit, whatever the weather, and enjoy the fabulous views to the west and north, sunsets all year round. There is a small sofa with a height of 43cm and depth 50cm.

Due to our remote location we are unable to get conventional broadband through the phone line. Thanks to the mobile EE signal coming from the Isle of Coll there is now unlimited Wi-Fi. We cannot be held responsible if for any reason the Wi-Fi is not working.

Guests share the grassy garden with Shian cottage next door. However there is a more private area beside the 'sitooterie'.
