East

Traditional and cosy Mull blackhouse with lovely sea views
Sleeps 2 adults + 1 child

East Cottage is a blackhouse, one of three, located at Haunn on the north west of the Isle of Mull.
This Mull blackhouse is a small cottage, with walls of stone over 3′ thick, built probably in the early 1800's and lived in until the 1940's.

There are not many blackhouses to rent on Mull and we have done what we can to preserve their character whilst making them more comfortable – the thick walls mean they are very warm and cosy! East is 2 miles away from the main road and just a 10 minutes' walk from the shore. It sits in a large grassy Hebridean garden, shared with two other blackhouses at Haunn, called Middle and West.

The accommodation

The parking space for the Haunn cottages is next to Middle cottage, on gravel. Access to East cottage is 20 meters back along the gravel track. There is an unlevel cobbled path to the front door. The threshold of the door is 7cm high. The door width is 56cm.

The entrance leads into a charming open plan kitchen-living room. There is a step up into the kitchen/living room of 8cm.

The simple traditional hand-built kitchen area is well stocked with crockery and utensils and there is a ceramic hob cooker and a fridge/freezer.
The door of the bottom oven opens sideways. The horizontal bar handle is 45cm above the floor. The top oven horizontal bar is 73cm above the floor.
The hob is 90cm above the floor.
The sink is 88cm above the floor.
The worktops are 90cm above the floor.
The highest shelf in the fridge is 108cm from the floor and the handle of the lowest drawer is 70cm above the floor.
The highest drawer in the freezer is 40cm above the floor and the lowest drawer is 21cm above the floor.
Glasses and crockery are all in floor units.
The kitchen is lit with ceiling mounted lights.

The dining area consists of a dining table and chairs with antique carved pew and an attractive farmhouse sideboard. The round dining table (diameter of 93cm) has 3 legs, which are 25cm in from the edge of the table. The height of the table is 73cm. The height from the floor to the underside of the table is 70cm. The table can sit 4 people. There are 2 chairs, they have a removable cushion and have no arms. They can be moved freely around the table. In the corner is a wooden corner bench, which sits 2 people. The flooring is wooden.

There is a sitting area around the wood stove, with two small coffee tables and cupboards housing a variety of games and books.
One coffee table is 69cm high and the other is 46cm high. The central sofa is 42cm high, from the floor to the top of the cushion. Depth is 65cm. The other sofa is 44cm high, from the floor to the top of the cushion, depth is 52cm.

The living room has the same reclaimed beech flooring as both Middle and West have.

The bedroom is located next to the front door on the left and has a king-size bed (made locally using reclaimed English oak and pine) and a futon chair-bed (for +1 child). There is a step up of 16cm, with a door width of 65cm. The height of the bed from the top of the mattress to the floor is 58cm. Bedside tables are 69cm high with lamps with switches on the lamps. Space between the wall and the right side of the bed is 62cm. The bedroom has a reclaimed maple floor with bedside rugs.

The bedroom has a hallway leading into the bathroom (making East more suited to single family occupancy). The hallway has a width of 73cm. To get to the hallway there is a gap of 60cm between the foot of the bed and the corner of the wardrobe.

The door width to the tiled bathroom is 70cm. The toilet is 40cm high. The shower entrance is 70cm wide, with a threshold of 17cm. Entrance to the shower space is 56cm wide. The shower space is 77cm wide and 88cm long. The hand basin is 82cm high. From the far end of the sink to the taps is 39cm. The taps push open. There is tile flooring.

East has lovely views over the Haunn fields to Treshnish Point from both living room and bedroom. East shares the large fenced garden and washing line with Middle and West, and has its own table/bench.
